

Joan Terrell was appointed a trustee by the Library Board of Trustees in August 2016 to fill a vacancy. She has lived in North Idaho for 36 years and has worked as an educator in various settings.

Joan taught home economics at Clark Fork Junior and Senior High School. She was also an Extension Educator with University of Idaho Cooperative Extension in Bonner County where she developed Family and Consumer Science programs for families and children and worked with volunteers and youth in the 4-H Program. She was county chair and had administrative responsibilities, such employee evaluation and budget development.

Joan also managed the business accounts in her husband's dental practice when he was practicing dentistry. She is married to Douglas Terrell, DDS (now retired).

Joan and Doug make their home in the Selle area. They have one adult daughter, Emily, who works as an assistant winemaker in the Willamette Valley.
