

Short Author Bio

Bill Percy draws on his experiences as a psychotherapist to write vivid, engaging tales of people confronting painful mysteries taken from the pages of today's news. His previous novels in the Monastery Valley Series, Climbing the Coliseum and Nobody's Safe Here, were Finalists or Distinguished favorites in multiple book award competitions. Book 3, The Bishop Burned the Lady, continues to explore heart-wrenching contemporary problems, such as sex trafficking, in a small-town mountain setting. Bill lives with his wife, Michele, in Hope, Idaho, above the shore of idyllic Lake Pend Oreille in the shadow of the rugged Cabinet Mountains.
