

BIO:

Rhonda Armbrust makes her fiction debut with Remote Viewer: Shadow Rescue. She has published numerous non-fiction book, magazine, and newspaper articles, is a copywriter, and a passionate poet. Rhonda resides near the shores of Idaho's largest body of water, Lake Pend Oreille, where she raised her two sons.

REVIEWS:

"Rhonda Armbrust has written a compelling, suspenseful thriller with engaging characters, especially the unique Jazz. I enjoyed reading this story and look forward to seeing this character again."

Tom Reppert, author of The Far Journey and The Captured Girl

"Well written imaginative tale of supernatural powers and inner strength." Guillaume Boisseton

"The author's extensive research is evident in the details of locations, rituals, customs and the underworld of clandestine politics. This is an entertaining read that is hard to put down."

Jo Roseborough